

And His Name

Wonderful, Counselor, Almighty God, Everlasting Father
His government, it will never end and in righteousness
He will reign forevermore

And His name, and His name will be Wonderful
And His name, and His name will be Counselor
And His name, and His name will be Prince of Peace
And His name, and His name will be Mighty God

For unto us a child is born
The promised one, to the world has finally come
Let heav'n above and all the saints below, let them
Cry out the name by which all now can be saved
