

Hallelujah, We Will Sing

By Tommy Walker

On that white horse He'll ride
With blazing eyes of fire
He'll judge and make things right
Turn all the dark to light

When He splits the eastern sky
With heaven wings I'll fly
And I will say good-bye
To these tears I've cried

Around His throne of grace
We'll see Him face to face
With those who've gone before
We'll be apart no more

And we will hear the sound
As all are gathered 'round
Like peals of thunder loud
We will shout

Chorus

Hallelujah, hallelujah
Salvation and glory and power belong to our King
Hallelujah, hallelujah, hallelujah, we will sing

Our king of Kings we'll see
Faithful and True is He
Our faith at last in sight
No more fears and doubts to fight

In heavens choir we'll be
With robes of majesty
From sin and death now free
We will sing!

Bridge

What a day that will be
When all darkness finally to flees
When all bow and sing to the King

What a day that will be
When His glory we will see
When all bow and sing to the King

Vamp

We will shout we will sing
We will shout we will sing
We will shout we will sing
To the Lamb, to the Lord
To our God, to the King

We will shout we will sing
We will shout we will sing, we will sing
