

I'm So Glad

By Tommy Walker

I'm so glad I've been chosen
I'm so glad I've been set apart
I'm overwhelmed You've allowed me to come
And be part of Your army of love

How I cherish Your calling
Your gracious gifts and anointing
The chance to stand here and give You praise
So Your glory, it may be seen

I don't know why You would let me in
But for Your kingdom here I am

Chorus

Thank You, Lord I praise You
That I get to be a part
Of showing the world Your heart
Thank You, Lord I praise You
That I get to be sent out
And proclaim Your salvation aloud
[Thank You]

Bridge

We join with that great cloud of witnesses
That's cheering us on
We join with the saints who've gone before us
Who gave their lives for Your love
We join with the groans of creation
Awaiting Your return, Lord
Just to think I've been grafted in
Part of Your kingdom work that will have no end
