

Jesus, We Celebrate Your Fame

By Tommy Walker

Jesus, Jesus, Jesus, Jesus
We celebrate Your fame
You are the only one who bares
The name above all names

God made flesh, You came to earth
When a star announced Your glorious birth
Shed Your blood and then were raised
Now all heaven sings your praise

Jesus, Jesus, Jesus, Jesus
Now the nations sing Your song
You are our comforter and friend
From now until the end

Hallelujah, hallelujah, hallelujah
To the king
Hallelujah to our savior
It's of his great fame we sing

Jesus, Jesus, Jesus, Jesus
All history proclaims
The earth has never been the same
Since You showed the world Your grace

Jesus, Jesus, Jesus, Jesus
Soon every knee will bow
We'll crown you Lord and King of kings
And then all the world will sing
