

Joy Joy Joy

Joy, joy, joy overflowing
Whenever I put my trust in Thee
When I give it up and let it go
Like a child I believe
That You know what's best for me
Oh what joy that comes washing over me

Bridge

If His eye is on the sparrow
I know He's watching over me
And If He hung every star so high in the sky
I know He can take good care of me

Vamp

I'm giving it up, I'm letting it go
I know that You know more than I'll ever know
I'm trusting You Lord

I'm giving it up, I'm letting it go
Receiving Your love, I'm receiving Your Joy
I'm praising You Lord
